AGENDA APPROVAL

OLD BUSINESS

NEW BUSINESS

Scott made motion to accept Fire Chief Miller's request that Policy 100: Recruiting & Employment which currently reads from the Fire Policy Handbook:

All persons offered employment as firefighters by the Department are expected to attend 75% of all regularly scheduled training and respond to 25% of all calls for service as is feasible. Failure to attend regularly scheduled training and respond to calls for service without an acceptable reason may result in termination of employment. Personnel are expected to keep the Fire Chief or Designee apprised of all the hours during which they can be expected to be available for service. Personnel must immediately notify the Fire Chief of times when they will be unavailable for service due to personal circumstances.

to be changed from 75% to 100% for attendance for regularly scheduled training and to remove "25%" of all calls for service. Bissonette seconded.
